

Operative G T Purdy.

Oct. 29th, 1926

Re: Conversation supposed to have been overheard between Willie Stevens and Capt. Regan 4 years ago.

John G. Dunn, City fireman

Operative interviewed Mr. Dunn at his home at Weldon and Hassert~~s~~ Street, New Brunswick, N.J.

He was asked if he overheard a conversation between Willie Stevens and Capt. Regan as follows:
'There has been trouble at our house, something is going to pop.'

Mr. Dunn states that he never hears this conversation at all and that it is not the truth. He never heard it and he believes they are trying to pull that because Capt. Regan is dead. He states that he was to Sommerville and they took statements from him and he denied ever hearing the alleged conversation. Mr. Dunn could not give further information.

Respectfully submitted:

G T P